CARDINAL SAYS BALLOT WOULD INJURE WOMAN

Declares Her Equality With Man, But Insists She Has Different Function to Perform.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 14.-In adressing the graduates of Mt. St. gnes' College, Cardinal Gibbons expressed the opinion that the woman is the peer of her husband, and her sex probably has done more good in the orld than clergymen.

"But," he continued, "because you are should have the same functions to per-Some women are not satisfied with their own power. They want to invade the man's privileges and they want to vote. I trust they will never get the authority to do that. For, when oman mingles in political life, she ses her freshness. "You cannot vote, but you can make ur men vote to please you, and you cannot preach. Some of these new wo-men get angry with St. Paul and call him an old fogy and an old bachelor, but he was right. You can preach in your own home—for the best teacher is the good, pious Christian mother."

PETWORTH CITIZENS . WANT 75-CENT GAS

"Government ownership of the gas works and 75 cent gas," was the demand voiced by a resolution adopted by the Citizens' Association evening. The subject was discussed by only one speaker, E. W. Oyster, the author of the resolution, and was adopt-

The resolution placed the association on record in favor of municipal ownership of all public utilities, but asked for egislation concerning only the gas service.

The association met at the home of the president, William F. Gude, 3990 New Hampshire avenue. As usual there was a social feature attached to the meeting, and after the transaction of business, refreshments were served in the parlor. The association will not meet again until October. Charles C. Lancaster, president of the Northwest Suburban Citizens' Association, was present by invitation and spoke at length on the harmony of interests between the various associations.
